Preface

Karnataka State Legislative Assembly elections, 2008, were held in May, 2008. Karnataka was the first State in the country to conduct Assembly elections on the basis of the Delimited Assembly Constituencies. Delimitation was based on 2001 census. There was no increase in the number of Assembly Constituencies, consequent to delimitation. However, the number of seats reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes increased from 33 (Scheduled Castes) and 2 (Scheduled Tribes) to 36 (Scheduled Castes) and 15 (Scheduled Tribes), respectively. Delimitation Commission of India in its Notification No.282 KT 2007-V dated 2nd July, 2007, notified the extent of Assembly Constituencies and extent of Parliamentary Constituencies in the State. For holding elections on the basis of the delimited Assembly Constituencies, preparing delimited electoral rolls was a pre-requisite and was a massive exercise. The President of India, gave assent to the Delimited Notification on 14th February, 2008. The work on preparation of electoral rolls on the basis of the delimited Assembly Constituencies was carried out in a record time of one month and the said delimited electoral rolls were published, invoking Rule 24 of Registration of Electors Rules, 1960. This effort materialized due to the hard work put in by the District Election Officers, Electoral Registration Officers, Assistant Electoral Registration Officers and their supporting staff, Officers and officials of the office of Chief Electoral Officer and M/s. CMC, the State Level Agency. In the entire process, IT was extensively used.

During the Assembly elections, 2008, multi media campaign was effectively used to enlighten the electors. Information on delimitation was disseminated through a media blitz. As a part of the campaign TV advertisements, advertisements in the print media and radio were covered.

Karnataka Legislative Assembly elections, 2008, was held in Three phases. On 10th May 2008, 11 Districts and 89 Assembly Constituencies went to the poll in the First Phase. On 16th May, 2008, 10 Districts and 66 Assembly Constituencies went to poll in the Second phase and on 22nd May, 2008 8 Districts with 69 Assembly Constituencies went to poll in the Third phase. On 25th May, 2008, counting was taken up in all Assembly Constituencies in the State. In all the three phases there were 43220 polling stations. 224 General Observers and 56 Expenditure Observers were deployed. In all three phases 49703 electronic voting machines were deployed. Video cameras were extensively used to cover important events in the course of elections. For the first time, Micro Observers were deployed in the polling stations who were drawn from Central Government departments and Public Sector undertakings of Central Government. Randomisation of polling personnel and of Electronic Voting Machines was done, using software developed by the National Informatics Centre.

To maximize Electors Photo Identity Card (EPIC), special EPIC campaign was taken up in the entire State, during April-May, 2008, in which 45.00 lakh electors were issued with EPICs. During Assembly Elections 2008, the total number of electors with EPIC stood at 2,70,11,949, which comes to 66.99% of the total electors.

During General Elections to Karnataka State Legislative Assembly, 2008, Electors Photo Identity Card (EPIC) or any one of the 20 alternate documents were permitted for identification of voters in the polling stations. The total number of voters was 4,03,19,942. Of this there were 2,05,30,378 male voters and 1,97,89,564 female voters. Out of this, in all three phases put together, 2,61,72,120 voters exercised their franchise, which comes to 64.91%. Highest voter turn out was in 178-Hoskote Assembly Constituency which recorded 89.35% and the lowest turnout was in 160-Sarvagnanagar Assembly Constituency, which recorded 35.40%.

General Elections to Karnataka State Legislative Assembly, 2008, were conducted by and large peacefully and smoothly. Statistical details on General elections to Karnataka State Legislative Assembly, 2008, are presented in this report. The report is useful for political parties, candidates, scholars and analysts, as the report is both informative and educative.
